A current immunization record from your child's doctor is required for every year of enrollment. If your child has a legal, medical exemption from any vaccinations required by the state of NC, please see the PMO Director. The Director will review the application on a case by case basis, weighing the possible impact and risks of the child's vaccination status on other students, their families, and staff. Duke Memorial Parents' Morning Out does not accept vaccination exemptions based on statements of religious belief or opposition to the immunization requirements.
